

The Sweet Shop

This is a match made in heaven—the retro and vintage style and candy! The Sweet Shop is a place where these two things meet, and it's one of the loveliest candy stores in the city.

This place is a family business, owned by a married couple who want to share their love to candy, as well as their passion for all things vintage. The Sweet Shop is a place where you will not only buy loads of yummy goodies, but also enjoy the adorable interior design.

Remember the favorite sweet treats from your childhood? Feel a bit nostalgic? Well, then go and pay a visit to The Sweet Shop. They most likely have this exact treat in the store. The mission of the owners is to find every existing candy from someone's childhood, be it modern or retro sweets, they will provide you with your favorite tastes, flavors, and memories.

Candy jars and different types of licorice, sour candy and handmade marshmallow, sugar-, nut- and gluten-free treats and chewing gum, old time hits and gummies, chocolate and lollipops, ice-cream and gelato—all of this mouthwatering goodness can be bought at The Sweet Shop. You are so welcome!
